

Oneida Language for Office Receptionist

|                                  |   |
|----------------------------------|---|
| Tasataoyát                       | come on in (enter)                            |
| Shekoli skλna'kó: ká             | hello, are you at peace?                      |
| λwatú:kλ akuya'takenhā'          | can I help you?                               |
| wakatshanu:ní tsi' weswake:tóhte | I am happy that you all arrived here(welcome) |
|                                  |   |
| Náhte' tesatuhútsyoni            | what do you need?                             |
| Yah te waki                      | I don't have any                              |
| Satnutút nyá:lekwe               | wait a minute                                 |
| Isi' yonhakalú:te                | there is the door                             |
| Nλki'wah                         | see you again                                 |
|                                  |   |
| Uhka' náhte' íselhe' aséhkΔ      | who do you want to see?                       |
| yah kλ teyáhse                   | she is not here                               |
| yah kλ telehse                   | he is not here                                |
|                                  |   |
| Lotina'kwλhati                   | they are mad coming in                        |
| Yakona'kwλhati                   | she is mad coming in                          |
| Lona'kwλhati                     | he is mad coming in                           |
|                                  |   |
| Kheya'takenhas ukwe:hu:we        | helping the "original people"                 |
| Luwatiya'takenhas                | he or she is helping them                     |
| íselhe' kλ asatlí:wayΔ           | do you want to leave a message?               |
| YawΔ                             | thank you                                     |
| Yo                               | your welcome                                  |